It Starts with Just One

Excerpts of an article by H. L. Hussmann

The Church: First Baptist Church, Henderson, Texas
The Challenge: Pray for just one person to attend church

What if every Christian had one person they committed to pray for and share the Gospel with? That's the question that inspired a church in Henderson, Texas to take a new approach to church growth. Pastor David Higgs said after attending a "Who's Your One?" event, he knew he'd found the right tool for a new ministry in his church. He tailored it for his congregation, then asked everyone to pray for one person.

More than 300 people signed up and put the name of their "one" on a large wooden cross at the front of the sanctuary. Every Sunday morning groups of four met to encourage and pray for each other regarding their "ones." The church conducted evangelism training for the participants and encouraged them to invite their "ones" to church gatherings (game nights, cookouts, luncheons and worship services). This helped people realize what is possible when members work together. It also helped them see how many unchurched people they knew. The members could also reach out to some who had not attended church in a long while.

"It doesn't cost a lot of money and it's something everyone can do," Pastor Higgs said. By encouraging individual believers to focus on sharing faith with just one person, First Baptist Church Henderson has seen its ministry multiply in ways they never initially imagined.
