FORERUNNER

November 3, 2022

What a wonderful blessing the Lord gave us last Saturday with our Fall Fair! Several of us gathered together and prayed before guests arrived -- we asked for the Lord's Presence to pour out in our midst. While the drizzly weather may have kept some away, the Lord blessed us with His Presence! There was such a sweet spirit among everyone present.

Many thanks to our Adult 3 Sunday School class (Burt Grubbs/Leesa Sitter, teachers). For many years, they have taken care of the food booth. They not only make sure the food is good, but they extend love and friendship to everyone that comes to the food area.

We had a large group of our members doing a trunk-n-treat this year! We had trunks decorated in college colors (LSU, Baylor, LA Tech -- betcha can't guess who did which team!), patriotic themes, fall themes, games, and more. Alda Sayles' grandson had a yard dart game that the kids loved. Thank you to all our dedicated trunk-n-treaters: Denise Grubbs, Alda Sayles & grandson, Lane, Debbie & Doug Frey, Carol Chatwin, Darlene & Ronald Causey, SHERALYN & Stephen Gordon, Linda & Gary Palmer, Allison Lane, Agnes & Harry Forester, Marion Brown, Cheryl Procell, Betty Howard, Denise Palmer & Gene Taylor, Cheryl & David Whitfield, John Stalnaker, Carol & John Harris.

Gene Taylor and David Whitfield also invited our old time car friends. Many of them brought their beautiful cars, despite the wet road conditions. Thank you to our dear greeters who welcomed our guests: Peggy Washington, Robbie Ramsey, Virginia McCarty. And Andrew Gordon -- our sign hanger extraordinaire!! What a great (and brave) guy to climb on the roof each year and hang the banners!

Thank you DeWayne Kelly for lining up a security officer weeks in advance! (SPD Officer Haskins even prayed with us before the event.) And to all our men who patrolled the grounds to provide a safe environment. Events like this cannot happen without the support of the entire church. Thank you to everyone who brought candy and prayed. All the Glory to God! Saved to serve, Denise

*A good time was had by ALL ages!

Prime Time Choir will meet Tuesday at 10:30AM.

The Sanctuary Choir and Prime Time Choir are joining voices to sing in our Christmas Music this year. The selections are beautiful and you are most welcome to come and join us in this special Presentation of Praise! Wednesdays at 7:00PM.

Don't forget to move your clocks back one hour Saturday night. We look forward to seeing you Sunday Morning! 😊

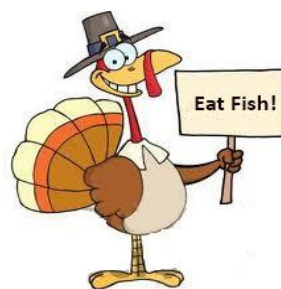

One Stitch at a Time will be gathering to sew this next Thursday, November 10th at 9:30AM, FLC.

Pastor Search Committee Nominations

Emmanuel Baptist Church members voted in the October business meeting to form a Pastor Search Committee. Ballots will be distributed to church members Sunday and next Wednesday for your convenience. You may also obtain a ballot from the office during the week. Please prayerfully consider your nominations and place the completed ballot in one of the offering boxes no later than Sunday Night, November 13th.

CHURCH THANKSGIVING DINNER

We will be having our annual EBC Thanksgiving Dinner, Sunday, November 20th at 5:00PM. You may bring your side dishes, etc. to the FLC at 4:30PM. There will be a sign-up sheet beginning Sunday, November 13th for those planning to attend, so we will have an accurate count when we order the turkey.

Margaret Ray welcomed a new great-grandchild into the world several weeks ago. Her grandson, Dylan is the proud father of Oak Leaf.

THANK YOU to all who sang for our 5th Sunday Night Singing and provided delicious desserts for our Ice Cream Fellowship!
