Do you ever get nervous about sharing the Gospel? Does your tongue feel tied when you're trying to recite the Plan of Salvation? Well, we have a gentle, non-confrontational way to minister in a special way to hurting people.

The leaders of Grief Share have developed an amazing session to help widows and widowers realize they are not alone in this difficult time.

Losing a spouse is like losing a part of yourself. Your husband or wife was your partner. Your confidante. Your best friend. The person you turned to in good times and bad. You faced the world side by side, and now your spouse is gone. You wonder how it's possible to go on. At GriefShare, they want to assure you that the complex emotions you're experiencing are natural, even to be expected, and these suggestions can help along your journey:

- 1) Be patient with yourself
- 2) Be honest about what you need
- 3) Reach out to others and avoid isolation
- 4) Seek help from Christian sources who are Scripturally based.

Just as God has opened the door for Emmanuel to minister to numerous Foster families in our community, He is now presenting us the honor of ministering to those who have suffered great loss. Bring someone who would benefit from the Grief Share presentation of "Loss of a Spouse," Friday night, February 20th from 5:30 – 7:30 in the FLC. Free of charge. (Refreshments will be served)

*Jesus Love Me,
This I Know!*

February Funnies

*Why do melons get married in church?
Because they canteloupe.*

*What do you call an army of baby cupids?
An infantry, of course.*

*What's the one flower you should never give on Valentine's Day?
Cauliflower*
